Tara Academy of Irish Dance and Emerald City Arts are pleased to announce The Emerald City Feis, featuring a great weekend of Irish step dancing competitions to be held April 7, 8, 2018 at The Conference Center at Convention Place, downtown Seattle.

The Emerald City Feis will be host to more than 450 dancers and their families from dancing schools throughout the western United States and Canada. There will be two full days of beginner through championship level Irish step dancers competing to live music on four stages.

The Emerald City Feis is open to the public and similar events in the Pacific Northwest have had consistently high attendance. It is not unusual to have capacity crowds supporting the dancers throughout the competition weekend.

We are looking for your support of this event and are offering several ways to be involved.

Sponsorships * (Emerald City Arts is a 501(c)3 and donations are tax deductible)

- Stage Sponsorship for $500.00

Our two competition rooms will have custom built dance stages with non-stop activity and attention throughout the weekend. With your stage sponsorship, we will display your company name, family name or art/logo above one of the stages for one day and your support will be acknowledged in the program book.

- Trophy Sponsorship for $100.00

Your sponsorship will be announced with the presentation of the award and your support will be acknowledged in the digital program book.
